O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, Through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night That our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free And the home of the brave?

A high-angle photograph of the Normandy American Cemetery. The foreground and middle ground are filled with rows of white, cross-shaped headstones on a green lawn. The rows are organized in a grid-like pattern, with some rows being more densely packed than others. In the background, a line of tall, dark green pine trees separates the cemetery from a sandy beach and the blue ocean. The sky is a clear, pale blue. The overall scene is peaceful and solemn.

MEMORIAL DAY

Honor what was given.

They put on the uniform.

They answered the call,
knowing the risks.

They stood alongside their brothers and sisters in arms.

They made the ultimate sacrifice
while serving our country.

Beyond what was lost,
let's remember all they gave.
