

The Gathering

Presents...

Presidential Power and Its Constitutional Limits

with Peter Cohen

This presentation explores how the Framers of the Constitution created the presidency, why they rejected both monarchy and a weak executive, and the structural safeguards they built into the Constitution to limit presidential authority.

The program also examines the Supreme Court's vital role in defining and enforcing those constitutional limits through landmark decisions spanning more than two centuries, to the present time

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

AT 7:00 PM

BALLROOM & CH. 970